FROM :

Assistant Legislative Counsel

MORI/CDF

SUBJECT : Closed Hearing on Terrorism by the House
Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence Subcommittee on Oversight, Scheduled for 11 May 1978 (formerly scheduled for 4 May 1978) from 0900 to 1100 hours in H 405, The Capitol

1. (C) As you are aware, Representative Les Aspin (D., Wis.), Chairman, Subcommittee on Oversight, called for a hearing on the subject of Terrorism and originally scheduled the hearing for 4 May 1978. The subjects to be covered were:
(a) Countering terrorism via propaganda and (b) [REDACTED]

2. (C) Chairman Aspin has indicated that he would like the hearing to follow the thematic outline which follows:

(a) Definition of the problem (e.g., the scope of terrorism, both national and international).

(b) What CIA entities are addressing the problem?

(d) How does propaganda play a role in combatting terrorism?

3. (C) I would suggest that the DDO representative be prepared with a short statement covering subparagraphs (a) and (b) above; that [REDACTED] have a short statement outlining

[REDACTED]
order or internal regulation); and that [REDACTED] have a
